Akerman is a sponsor of the George Edgecomb Bar Association's (GEBA) Annual Scholarship Banquet where dynamic high school students, who have exhibited excellence in both the classroom and the community will be recognized. For the past thirty years, GEBA has dedicated itself to not only the advancement of minorities in the legal profession, but to increasing the legal profession's involvement in both community affairs and public service. GEBA has awarded more than $240,000 in scholarships to college bound students.
