

Seminars and Conferences

The New Cuba? What You Need to Know About the Cuban Art Market

Presented by Akerman's Cuba Practice

April 15, 2015
5:30 PM – 7:30 PM UTC

Herrick, Feinstein Offices
Two Park Avenue
14th Floor
New York, NY

Akerman and Herrick, Feinstein LLP will host a seminar that explores buying, selling, and collecting contemporary Cuban art, as well as the potential issues involving art nationalized by the Cuban government. Discussion topics will include how recent U.S. regulatory changes will affect American's ability to buy Cuban artwork, techniques for U.S. collectors to legally pay for new acquisitions and import their purchases into the United States, and how to avoid legal exposure by engaging in provenance-related due diligence.

Register
Click here to register

Related People

Augusto E. Maxwell

Related Work

Cuba

Related Offices

New York