A commercial and business litigator, Kimberly Lopez Narbona appears on behalf of clients in courts across the state of Florida and in U.S. district courts across the nation. She prosecutes and defends claims for trademark infringement, deceptive business practices, fraud, antitrust, tort, and contract claims. Serving a diverse client base, Kimberly represents banks, lenders, asset management organizations, and other segments of the financial services industry. She has prosecuted claims and collected assets on multimillion dollar defaulted debts. Kimberly also defends claims arising under the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, Florida Consumer Collection Practices Act, Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, Fair Credit Reporting Act, Equal Credit Opportunity Act, and Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.

In her broader practice, Kimberly has significant experience negotiating sales agreements in the power generation sector and has resolved disputes among co-owners of closely held business entities and limited liability company members. Kimberly leverages her years of litigation experience to identify concerns and counsel clients based on their particular business needs and risk tolerances.
