Akerman is a proud sponsor of The Historical Society’s “A Supreme Evening.” This annual dinner event is hosted by the Florida Supreme Court Historical Society and is Florida’s premier judicial event. This event enables the Historical Society to carry out its mission of educating the public about the critically important work of the courts in protecting personal rights and freedoms. Highlights of this event include:

- Keynote speaker Theodore “Ted” Olson, former U.S. Solicitor General
- A farewell to the three retiring Supreme Court Justices
- Welcoming of the three newly appointed Supreme Court Justices
- Update on the State of the Court by Chief Justice Charles Canady
