

Seminars and Conferences

Florida Ports Council Federal Breakfast Briefing

Presented by the Florida Ports Council with sponsorship by Akerman

September 19, 2013
8:00 AM – 9:00 AM UTC

Florida House
1 Second Street, N.E.
Washington, D.C.

Akerman is a sponsor of the Florida Ports Council (FPC) breakfast briefing featuring remarks on key federal transportation issues impacting Florida ports by Representative John Mica (R-FL). FPC is a Florida nonprofit corporation that serves as the professional association for Florida's fifteen deepwater seaports and their management. Florida's network of seaports is one of the state's greatest economic assets, and support from the federal government has a vast impact on the economic contributions to communities throughout the state of Florida.

Related People

Richard L. Spees

Related Work

Government Strategies

Related Offices

Washington, D.C.