Spencer Crowley Comments on Resurgence of Miami River to Miami Herald

January 28, 2019

Spencer Crowley spoke to the Miami Herald about plans to revitalize the area along the Miami River, which stretches 5.5 miles through the City of Miami. The Miami River area is considered among the last in Miami to undergo revitalization efforts, according to the newspaper.

Of the marine resurgence along the Miami River, Crowley said, “People look at the marine industry as something that only affects high net worth people. But the people who service the mega-yachts are engineers, A/C and engine repairmen and technicians. Those are all relatively high-paying jobs. When you see these mega-yachts going up and down the Intracoastal, we use the analogy of a parade float going up and down Bourbon Street, except instead of throwing out beads they’re throwing out money.”
