Defining Compensable Time Under the FLSA

Presented by Akerman's Labor & Employment Practice Group

March 18, 2015

8:30 AM - 10:15 AM UTC

Akerman LLP
666 Fifth Avenue, 20th Floor
(entrances on 52nd and 53rd Streets)
New York, NY

Matthew Steinberg will present "All in a Day's Work? - Defining Compensable Time Under the FLSA." His presentation will review traditional compensable time issues, such as travel time, on-call time, and security checks, and will also examine the impact of technology on the modern workplace, such as remote access to work and computer boot-up time. This breakfast seminar will also address related New York law issues and provide practical advice on how to implement best practices for the evolving workplace and to minimize potential liability.
