

People

William C. Arnholds

Chair, Corporate Finance and Lending Practice

Miami

T: +1 305 982 5623

william.arnholds@akerman.com

vCard

Ranked by Chambers USA, which lauds his reputation as a corporate lawyer “who serves his clients very well,” William Arnholds has more than three decades of experience navigating public and private debt transactions. He has negotiated complex billion dollar transactions, and frequently acts as borrower’s counsel for revolving credit and term loan facilities utilizing a variety of structures and in a broad range of industries.

Notable Work

Term Loan and Revolving Credit Facilities: Borrower’s counsel for aggregate USD$1.7 billion first lien term loan and multicurrency revolving credit facility, including uncommitted foreign dollar denominated competitive bid letter of credit facility.

Debt Offerings: Counsel to client accessing hi-yield debt markets from time to time for past 14 years.

Lending Transactions: Counsel to private bank of recognized national standing in numerous secured and unsecured lending transactions.

Affiliations

- The Florida Bar, Member

Honors and Distinctions

- Best Lawyers, 2007-2025, Listed in Florida for Banking and Finance Law and Corporate Law
- Chambers USA, 2012-2024, Ranked in Florida for Banking & Finance: Transactional
- Super Lawyers Magazine, 2014-2021, Listed in Florida for Banking
- South Florida Legal Guide Top Lawyers, 2012, 2014-2019, Listed for Corporate and Business, Banking

Areas of Experience

Corporate
Corporate Finance and Lending
Financial Services

Education

J.D., Notre Dame Law School, 1985
B.A., Bucknell University, 1982, cum laude

Admissions

Bars

Florida

Related Content

Akerman Represents Yingling Aviation in Acquisition of Global Engineering & Technology, Inc.
January 14, 2025

Akerman Law Firm Represents Trivest Partners in Sale of Front Row Group to Charlesbank Capital Partners
September 06, 2024

Chambers USA Ranks Akerman Among the Nation’s Best Law Firms in 2024
June 06, 2024

- Daily Business Review, 2013, 2014, Top Dealmaker Finalist for Corporate Finance