Arlene Kline to Speak on Independent Contractor Issues

Presented by the International Paralegal Management Association

October 16, 2013 to October 18, 2013

Hyatt Regency Grand Cypress
One Grand Cypress Boulevard
Orlando, FL

Arlene Kline will speak at the International Paralegal Management Association (IPMA) 29th Annual Conference & Expo. Her presentation, titled “Hiring Independent Contractors,” will discuss the use of temporary workers to fill short-term needs through direct and indirect hire, and examine some of the issues that may arise when employing independent contractors. The IPMA is a resource for information and education on the management of paralegals and other practice support professionals in law firms and law departments.
