

Speaking Engagements

Kathi Giddings, Kristen Fiore, and Diane DeWolf to Speak on Administrative Appeals

May 1, 2019

1:00 PM - 4:55 PM ET

Webinar

Kathi Giddings, Kristen Fiore, and Diane DeWolf will speak on a webinar presented by the Appellate Practice Section of the Florida Bar titled, “Administrative Appeals: Process, Practice, Preservation, and Points to Consider After Amendment 6.” Kathi will speak on “Distinctions Between General Civil Appeals and APA Appeals,” Kristen will discuss, “The Role of Certiorari in Administrative Appeals,” and Diane will discuss, “Considerations After Amendment 6: The Death of Deference.” The program will provide an in-depth look into the administrative appeal process, including the nuts and bolts of general administrative appellate rules, the key differences between general civil appeals and APA appeals, petitions for writ of certiorari as a matter of right, preserving error for the appeal, and practice considerations in Administrative Law following Amendment 6.

Register

Click here to register for this event.

Related People

Diane G. DeWolf
Kristen M. Fiore

Related Work

Appellate Litigation

Related Offices

Tallahassee