Akerman Once Again Honored Among Most Innovative Lawyers by Financial Times

February 12, 2019

Firm Commended for Legal Expertise in Real Estate Development

Akerman LLP, a top 100 U.S. law firm serving clients across the Americas, has been recognized as one of the nation's most innovative law firms by the Financial Times for the fourth consecutive year.

Akerman was "Highly Recommended" in the category Legal Expertise – Creating a New Standard for its vital role in several urban development projects relating to Chicago's Lakeshore East, a $4 billion, 28-acre development in downtown Chicago. Partner Jack George, who developed a comprehensive master plan for the 16-year-old development project, advised on rewriting zoning regulations and secured an unprecedented bond offering to facilitate the construction of a series of high-rise towers, including the iconic Vista Tower.

Akerman lawyers have received additional praise from the Financial Times for their legal expertise and commitment to client service innovation. In 2017, the Cuba team was recognized in the Driving Value category for expanding Expedia's online travel booking service to Cuba. The same year, Michael Goldberg received special commendation in the Litigation and Disputes category for his efforts as SEC-appointed receiver in the case of Jay Peak

Resort, the largest fraud scheme in the history of the federal EB-5 Immigrant Investor Visa Program.

In 2016, the Cuba Practice was recognized for its innovative regulatory work for clients, after constructing a groundbreaking legal framework that enabled its client Musicabana to launch the largest, most historic music event of its kind in Cuba. The Tax Practice was recognized in the same category for leading a history victory for the Seminole Tribe of Florida that reverberated for Native American tribes across the United States.

The annual Innovative Lawyers report was developed by the Financial Times in partnership with RSG Consulting. Each year the team conducts an investigation on the challenges that businesses face and how lawyers have innovated to help their clients solve them. Firms are selected following extensive independent research and direct client feedback.
