International Litigation and Arbitration

As the global marketplace continues to drive business beyond domestic borders, disputes involving the laws of multiple jurisdictions are on the rise. Effective resolution of cross-border disputes requires strategic counsel from highly experienced legal professionals.

Akerman's International Litigation and Arbitration team has a long record of accomplishment in resolving complex multijurisdictional disputes. Recognized by Chambers Global for having a "deep understanding of legal systems and cultures," our lawyers can assess variable risks and devise legal strategies using the best suitable forum and laws.

Our team represents multinational, foreign, and domestic corporations and individuals before U.S. federal and state courts, as well as in arbitration proceedings before a wide range of international arbitral bodies in multiple jurisdictions. We are zealous advocates, helping clients successfully address conflicts in a broad range of sectors, including general commercial disputes, power and energy, construction and engineering, and banking and finance, among many others.

Our highly responsive, multilingual team works in tandem with experienced local counsel to provide seamless resolution to disputes throughout Latin America, as well as in Europe, Asia Pacific, Africa, and the Middle East.
