

Practices

Tax-Exempt Organizations

From obtaining or maintaining tax-exempt status to navigating tax requirements related to fundraising activities, tax-exempt organizations require legal counsel that understands the unique federal and state regulations affecting their operations.

Akerman's Tax-Exempt Organizations Practice offers a comprehensive range of legal services to all types of tax-exempt organizations, including fundraising charities, private foundations, private operating foundations, trade associations, religious organizations and churches, business leagues, political organizations, museums, hospitals, and senior care facilities.

We provide legal advice that helps our clients operate efficiently, comply with the myriad laws and regulations, and minimize risk so they can keep their focus on the mission.

What We Do

- Forming organizations
- Obtaining and maintaining tax exemption
- Business income excise, property, and sales taxes
- Compliance and disclosure requirements
- Transactions
- Governance
- Day-to-day operation
- Tax aspects of fund-raising

Connect With Us

Peter O.
Larsen

Co-Chair, Tax
Practice Group
+1 904 598 8602

Our Team

Related Work

Tax
Trusts and Estates

- Investments
- Audits, penalties, and/or sanctions