WorkedUp: The Gig Economy Revisited

May 31, 2019

Matt Steinberg welcomes back his Akerman New York colleague Ray Berti to discuss recent economic, social, and legal developments in the gig economy, including new NLRB and DOL guidance suggesting gig workers are not protected by traditional employment and labor laws; millennials' and Gen Zers' potential preference for (or aversion to) gig work; and whether the predictions that gigging is the "future of work" actually have any merit.
