vCard

Scott Allbright has significant litigation experience in state and federal courts across the United States. Within Akerman's Litigation Practice Group, he concentrates on complex issues affecting public and private companies. Scott's work includes breach of contract, fraud, class actions, unjust enrichment, unfair competition, deceptive pricing, and insurance coverage. Scott also counsels and collaborates with insurance companies to help them navigate the complex and challenging reality of litigating insurance class actions in Florida. Scott's experience litigating insurance claims enables him to focus on the most important — but sometimes overlooked — aspects for his clients and to provide strategic counsel that aligns with the priorities of the business.

Notable Work

Deceptive Pricing: Representing and advising multiple clients in litigation and pre-litigation matters involving alleged deceptive sale and/or clearance pricing, pricing strategy, and compliance with relevant laws.

Complex Commercial Litigation: Successfully second-chaired week-long trial concerning statutory penalty for misrepresentation and concealment to a jury, obtaining a multimillion dollar judgment in favor of our clients.

Complex Insurance Litigation: Represented insurer in putative class action challenging insurer's practices relating to waiver of Uninsured/Underinsured Motorist (UM/UIM) coverage. Trial court dismissed the Third Amended Complaint with prejudice and, on appeal, the decision was affirmed.
