Akerman Enhances Real Estate Strengths with Christopher Hayes in Orlando, Stephen Tilbrook in Fort Lauderdale

August 5, 2019

Firm Expands Transactional, Land Use and Environmental Real Estate Capabilities

Akerman LLP, a top 100 U.S. law firm serving clients across the Americas, today announced the expansion of its national Real Estate Practice Group with two partners, further enhancing the core strengths of the firm. Christopher Hayes joins Akerman in Orlando from Killgore, Pearlman, Semanie, Denius & Squires, P.A. and brings thorough transactional real estate experience, while Stephen Tilbrook joins in Fort Lauderdale from GrayRobinson, P.A. and focuses his practice in complex land use, development and environmental matters.

“Our real estate team is continually growing to fit the needs of the developers, owners, and investors that we represent,” said Eric Rapkin, chair of Akerman’s Real Estate Practice Group. “Chris and Stephen bring crucial skills that will allow us to continue to solve these clients’ most pressing real estate issues.”

Akerman’s core strengths in real estate have expanded with the addition of 33 lawyers to the group in multiple key markets since 2018. Alan Cohen, chair of the Real Estate Finance Practice, and four additional lawyers joined Akerman in New York, broadening the practice group’s financing
