

In The News

Palash Pandya Appointed ACG New York Secretary

September 6, 2019

ACG New York, the largest association of middle-market dealmaking professionals in New York, appointed Palash Pandya as Secretary for the 2019-2020 term, effective September 1.

With broad capital markets experience, Pandya provides strategic advice to public and private companies in a variety of transactional, securities, and general corporate matters. He advises public and private companies, private equity funds, family offices and entrepreneurs in mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, tender offers, spin-offs, venture capital investments, and recapitalizations.

Click here to view this news.

Related People

Palash I. Pandya

Related Work

Corporate

Related Offices

New York