Los Angeles, CA

Akerman is proud to sponsor the Rotary Club of Los Angeles with their 2nd Tuesday monthly private networking reception to meet the Icons of LA. The title of the panel is “Pay Parity and Gender Bias -- Leveling the Playing Field for Women.” The panelists include Akerman partner, Marissa Alguire, Chief Information Officer at Forest Lawn and former CIO at PaySafe and True Religion Jeans, Jennifer Terrill, General Manager of Exposition Park (State of California), Ana M. Lasso, and Ina McGuinness, a top investor relations professional who advises California companies on environmental, social and governance policies, as well as California’s new law requiring women on boards of directors.

The Rotary Club of Los Angeles is a business and civic organization established in 1909. Also known as LA5, it is comprised of over 300 of LA’s most prominent leaders in business, legal, government, and not-for-profit sectors.
