

People

Carlos M. de la Cruz III

Associate, Corporate

Miami

T: +1 312 634 5752

carlos.delacruz@akerman.com

vCard

Carlos de la Cruz focuses his practice on private and public M&A transactions. He regularly performs various corporate governance functions for companies, including drafting corporate resolutions, subscription agreements, and organizational documents. He also has experience representing underwriters and issuers in Rule 144A and Regulation S debt and equity offerings throughout Latin America across a wide range of industries, including oil and gas, energy, pulp, and consumer finance.

Related Professional Experience

- Judicial Intern for The Honorable Ursula Ungaro, U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida, Miami, Florida
- Judicial Intern for The Honorable Rosario Silva de Lapuerta, Vice President and Spanish Member, European Court of Justice, Luxembourg
- Securities and Exchange Commission, Accounting Analyst Intern, Miami, Florida

Honors and Distinctions

- Best Lawyers, 2024-2025, Listed in Florida for Corporate Law as "One to Watch"

Areas of Experience

Corporate
Capital Markets
M&A and Private Equity
Brazil

Education

J.D., Cornell Law School, 2017
B.S., Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania, 2014

Admissions

Bars

Florida
Illinois
New York

Languages

Portuguese
Spanish

Related Content

Akerman Represents DMI Personal Care in Acquisition by TruArc Partners
January 28, 2025

Akerman Represents Hidden Harbor Capital Partners in Strategic Investment in Quaker Valley Foods
January 24, 2025

Austin Ownbey, Evelina Gentry, and Carlos de la Cruz to Speak on Planning for the New HSR Notification Rules and Form
January 23, 2025