

Seminars and Conferences

Scattershooting from the Bench: Thoughts on Appellate Writing

Presented by Akerman's Dallas Office and Litigation Practice Group

January 30, 2020
11:30 AM CT

2001 Ross Avenue
Suite 3600
Dallas, TX

Akerman's Litigation Practice Group and Dallas office will present a seminar on key considerations for lawyers practicing appellate advocacy. Presented by Justice Bill Whitehill of the Texas Fifth District Court of Appeals at Dallas, this program will cover best practices in appellate advocacy, including recommendations on writing effective briefs and do's and don't's in oral argument. Justice Whitehill will provide a perspective both from his time on the bench as well as his 32-year career as a litigator in private practice.

CLE credit is pending.

Register

To RSVP for this program, please email Daisy Valadez, at daisy.valadez@akerman.com.

Related People

C. Bryce Benson

Related Work

Litigation

Related Offices

Dallas