

In The News

Christian George, Cindy Laquidara Named Among Jacksonville Business Journal's 2020 Class of Ultimate Attorneys

February 13, 2020

Christian George, Jacksonville Office Managing Partner, and Cindy Laquidara are among the Jacksonville Business Journal's 2020 class of Ultimate Attorneys. The publication said of its honorees, "Coming from a range of backgrounds and specializing in a variety of areas, these men and women represent the best that the legal profession has to offer. As well as excelling in things like mastering regulations and effectively litigating, they've also had an impact on the broader community, donating their time and effort to a number of community causes."

George focuses his practice on commercial litigation and creditors' rights in all courts, including bankruptcy court. He routinely represents financial institutions and other lenders, shareholders, equity investors, members and partners in professional corporations, and LLCs and partnerships, as well as all types of businesses, individuals, and families in all areas of commercial and real estate litigation.

Laquidara navigates complex litigation matters, from administrative hearings to federal and state trials and appeals. Her practice serves municipal authorities, private corporations with long-term lease arrangements, companies submitting competitive procurement bids and proposals, general commercial litigation, and energy-related

Related People

Christian P. George
Cindy A. Laquidara

Related Work

Litigation

Related Offices

Jacksonville

matters in dispute resolution pertaining to bid disputes, land use, transportation, contracts, First Amendment, government and utility contracting, environmental issues, and government affairs.