Chandler Thompson is a partner in the Consumer Financial Services, Data and Technology (CFS+) Practice Group. His practice has included a wide variety of commercial litigation matters including extensive experience in consumer lending, construction litigation, toxic tort, and insurance litigation. In recent years, Chandler has devoted his practice to defending lenders in wrongful foreclosure litigation, including claims arising under the Truth in Lending Act, Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, and various state laws. Chandler also has a considerable depth of experience in construction litigation and real estate development law, handling numerous cases related to the construction of oil and gas pipelines, industrial dairy operations, and condominiums, as well as cases related to development entitlements, environmental law, and municipal regulation.
