Beth Alcalde Shares Employee Benefit Plan-Related Guidance for Employers During Pandemic in Employee Benefit Plan Review

May 11, 2020

Beth Alcalde wrote an article offering employee benefit plan-related guidance for employers during the COVID-19 pandemic in an article published in the latest issue of Employee Benefit Plan Review.

“In the face of a potential public health crisis such as the coronavirus, prudent employers commit extraordinary resources to ensuring critical business continuity and information technology (IT) infrastructure planning. The human resources departments of sophisticated multi-location employers face competing priorities and are stretched thin, however employee benefit plan compliance topics must remain top of mind.”
