Amy Gaylord to Speak on Virtual Labor and Employment Arbitration

July 28, 2020

12:30 PM – 2:00 PM ET

Webinar

Amy Moor Gaylord will speak on a panel titled, “Virtual Labor and Employment Arbitration: The Good, The Bad and The Ugly,” presented by The College of Labor and Employment Lawyers. The panel will explore the benefits and challenges of conducting and participating in virtual labor and employment arbitration during the pandemic. Practitioners will discuss their observations on the technology, the factors influencing the decision to go virtual, client concerns and reactions, problems they have experienced, as well as effective means of resolution.

Amy was recently elected to the College of Labor and Employment Lawyers, a non-profit professional association honoring the leading lawyers nationwide in the practice of Labor and Employment Law.
