

In The News

Three Akerman Partners Once Again Recognized in Benchmark Litigation's 40 & Under Hot List

September 1, 2020

Akerman litigators Aleksas Barauskas, Christian George, and Ryan Roman were once again recognized among Benchmark Litigation's 40 & Under Hot List. The accolade highlights the achievements of the nation's most accomplished partners who are 40 years old or younger.

Barauskas represents business and individual clients in all phases of litigation in state and federal court, including pre-suit case evaluation, motion practice, appeals, and post-judgment collection activity, in disputes involving contracts, negotiable instruments, intellectual property, and tort actions.

George, who serves as Jacksonville Office Managing Partner, has a statewide practice focusing on both commercial and bankruptcy litigation. He protects the interests of businesses and individuals in disputes relating to contracts, negotiable instruments, and tort actions. George routinely represents financial institutions and other lenders, shareholders, members and partners in professional corporations, LLCs and partnerships, as well as all types of businesses, individuals, and families.

Roman is a well-rounded litigator and businessman, focusing his practice on securities litigation, securities fraud, and shareholder class action defense on behalf of large sophisticated companies

Related People

Christian P. George
Ryan Roman

Related Offices

Jacksonville
Miami

and directors and officers of public companies. He also defends businesses in antitrust litigation, consumer class actions, and other complex litigation, as well as representing private equity firms and their portfolio companies.

The honorees were selected based upon an extensive peer review and case examination process among thousands of leading practitioners in the United States.