Akerman Once Again Recognized by Chambers Latin America

September 11, 2020

Lawyers Ranked for Leading Cuba and International Arbitration Practices

Akerman LLP, a top 100 U.S. law firm serving clients across the Americas, has once again been recognized by Chambers and Partners among the world's leading law firms for resolving complex disputes and for putting together business transactions in the Latin America region.

Luis A. Perez, co-chair of Akerman's Latin America and the Caribbean Practice, was ranked for the ninth consecutive time in the International Arbitration: Latin America-wide category for leading arbitration proceedings and resolving complex, cross-border disputes on behalf of companies and individuals across Latin America.

The firm's Cuba practice was again recognized in the Corporate/Commercial: International Firms – Cuba category as a result of the group's transactional matters and successes on behalf of clients. International Practice Chair Pedro A. Freyre and Cuba Practice Chair Augusto E. Maxwell were ranked as leading lawyers in Corporate/Commercial – Cuba.

The rankings highlighted echo similar honors from the Chambers Global 2020 edition, in which the firm's Cuba Practice once again achieved the same
