Mary Samsa to Speak During Conference on Tax Issues for Health Care Organizations

October 22, 2020 to October 23, 2020

Webinar

Mary Samsa will speak at the Tax Issues for Health Care Organizations conference, on a webinar titled, “Understanding the Impact: Market Trends in Executive Compensation and Employee Benefits and a View from the Compliance Front.” The conference is hosted by the American Health Law Association (AHLA). The panel will explore the (1) health care industry’s response to COVID-19 through executive compensation and benefit offerings, (2) year-end compliance considerations for benefit plans, (3) implementation of certain SECURE Act retirement plan changes, (4) IRS enforcement initiatives, and (5) re-evaluation of split-dollar life insurance. Although virtual, the program will include the ability to ask questions directly of the panel.
