

In The News

Amy Gaylord Appointed as Co-Chair of ABA Section of Labor and Employment Law's Committee on Development of the Law Under the NLRA

October 21, 2020

The American Bar Association (ABA) Section of Labor and Employment Law appointed Amy Gaylord as co-chair of its Committee on Development of the Law Under the NLRA. The committee, one of the oldest and largest in the Section of Labor and Employment Law, informs its membership of the developing case law and seeks the orderly and equitable development of that law.

Gaylord focuses her practice on traditional labor matters and employment litigation for both public and private sector employers with an emphasis on National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) proceedings, union organizing drives, NLRB-conducted elections, arbitration cases, contract negotiations, and employment discrimination matters. She has experience counseling clients in various industries, including higher education, not-for-profit, public safety (fire/rescue, police, 911 emergency dispatch centers), hospitality, and entertainment, among others.

Related People

Amy Moor Gaylord

Related Work

Labor and Employment

Related Offices

Chicago