John Dicks to Speak on Florida and Israeli Agriculture Industries

November 16, 2020

8:00 AM – 9:00 AM ET

Webinar

John Dicks will speak on a panel titled, “Welcome and Introductions + Overview of Florida and Israeli Agriculture Industries,” at the Florida-Israel Agriculture Innovation Summit. The summit will discuss the agriculture industry in Florida, agriculture innovation from Israel, and opportunities for collaboration between these two agriculture power houses. The summit will feature Florida’s largest growers, agriculture investors, scientists, and government officials who will discuss current challenges and future plans for Florida’s agriculture industry, the 2nd largest industry in Florida after tourism.
