Amy Moor Gaylord to Speak on the Foundations of Labor Relations

February 10, 2021

8:00 AM – 4:00 PM CT

Virtual Zoom

Amy Moor Gaylord will co-present “Virtual Academy I: The Foundation of Labor Relations,” hosted by The National PELRA Labor Relations Certification Program (CLRP) Virtual Academy. The program provides participants with the resources to achieve a better understanding of the basic principles and practices of labor relations. The program includes workshops and interactive exercises so participants can sharpen their knowledge of “The Duty to Bargain,” “Good Faith Bargaining,” “The Scope of Bargaining,” “The Profile of an Excellent Negotiator,” and writing important contract clauses.

CLRP is an innovative certificate designed specifically for public sector labor relations and human resources professionals who are new to the field as well as for the experienced practitioner seeking additional training.
