Jacqueline Arango to Speak on Doing Business in Latin America

March 19, 2021

12:00 PM - 1:30 PM ET

Virtual Event

Co-Chair of Akerman’s White Collar Crime and Government Investigations Practice, Jacqueline Arango will speak on a roundtable discussion titled, “FCPA in Action: Latin America,” organized by Global Legal Studies Initiative at FIU College of Law. The panelists will exchange their experiences and views about the current risks of doing business in certain Latin American jurisdictions. The discussion will also focus on what needs to be done by those countries to thwart corruption, embrace government and private sector transparency, accountability and to align with international anti-corruption and compliance standards.
