

Speaking Engagements

Jeremy Burnette to Speak on the Importance of Ethics, Pro Bono, and Community Service

April 8, 2021

Virtual Video Series

Jeremy Burnette will speak on the “Judicial Speaker Series,” a virtual video series presented by the University of Pikeville and sponsored by the Kentucky Bar Foundation. The series will feature a variety of attorneys who will educate the viewers on such judicial subjects as family law and consumer law as well as legal issues relating to healthcare. Jeremy Burnette will discuss the importance of ethics, pro bono work, and community service in the legal profession.

Register

Click here for more information.

Related People

Jeremy Burnette

Related Work

Healthcare
Healthcare Fraud and Abuse

Related Offices

Atlanta