Akerman Partner Neisen Kasdin Featured in Miami Herald Article Discussing How City National Bank Plans to Handle Florida's Explosive Growth

July 12, 2021

Miami Office Managing Partner Neisen Kasdin was featured in a Miami Herald article discussing how City National Bank will leverage Florida's explosive growth into its own growth while retaining its culture of personalized service. Florida gained $8.3 billion in new-resident income in 2020, with an additional $800 million coming into Miami-Dade in just the first quarter of 2021. City National Bank is focused on expanding in myriad ways — services, technology, brand presence and physical footprint — while retaining its longstanding personal touch.

“What you will see is continued growth, both organic and, where there are the right opportunities, acquisitions,” said longtime City National director, and former Miami Beach Mayor, Neisen Kasdin. “City National will continue to grow and be a survivor in the consolidation of banks.”
