Christopher Duke to Speak on Labor and Employment Law Trends

August 3, 2021 to August 4, 2021

Courtyard Miami Downtown
200 Southeast Second Avenue
Miami, FL

Christopher Duke will speak at the 11th Annual Labor & Employment Law Conference presented by The Seminar Group. The seminar will cover a wide range of workplace issues, including wage and hour issues, leave law, employees' use of medical marijuana, the gig economy, sexual harassment, and racial justice. It will also examine developments in labor law and non-competition covenants. This year's program will also offer discussions relevant to the COVID-19 crisis, including vaccination issues and managing employees who work from home (or do they live at work?).
